THE PARTICIPANT'S IMAGE

1. With the participation in the Event, the Participant gives consent for their image and voice to be recorded by the Organizer during the Event in the form of photographs and audiovisual materials. The Organizer has the right, unlimited in time and space, to use the photographs and audiovisual materials for purposes connected with the statutory activity of the Organizer, in particular by publishing the above on its own website, in social media and its own information channels.
2. Personal data in the form of image will be processed according to the principles described in these Regulations in 5 Section.
3. The Organizer is authorized to use photographic and audio-visual materials concerning the Event, which may include images or voice of the Participants, for non-commercial or commercial purposes, in particular as part of organizing the next edition of the Event or promoting the Event or the Organizer, to which the Participant, by accepting the Regulations and participating in the Event, consents. The consent referred to in the preceding sentence is granted free of charge and the Participant is not entitled to any claims, including remuneration, for the use and publication of his/her image and voice within the scope of the consent granted. Any withdrawal of consent will not affect the legality of actions taken before the withdrawal of consent. Unless the withdrawal of consent is aimed at legitimate protection of the Participant's personal rights, any materials containing the Participant's image produced or distributed before the withdrawal of consent will still be able to be used for the intended purpose after such withdrawal, and in particular the withdrawal of consent will not have the effect of obligating the removal of the Participant's image from the materials produced or ceasing the distribution of materials containing the image of the Participant who withdrew consent.

4. Participants' consent to the use of their image will be expressed either through accepting the appropriate box or by sending to the Organizer by e-mail information about consent to the use of his/her image. Lack of consent does not exclude the possibility of participation in the Event. In case of lack of consent, please inform us in order to enable us to secure your rights.
